Welcome to St. Mark’s!
The feast we keep today goes by many names: in the Episcopal Church its official name is the feast of the St. Mary the Virgin, in the Roman Catholic Church it is the Assumption, and in the Orthodox churches it is the Dormition. In all three communions, it is the principal feast throughout the year of Mary, “Mother of God” — from “Theotokos,” the God-bearer, her ancient title from the undivided church, affirmed by the Council of Chalcedon in 451. Today’s feast celebrates the day when, “the course of her earthly life being finished, God took her to himself.” Christians do not agree on the exact manner of her departure from this life, but all do agree that she is special indeed: for the role she plays in the narrative of salvation, for the strength of her witness against the power structures of her day, and for the hope her example offers to everyone who follows in her footsteps. Insofar as we bear Christ to the world today, we share her vocation and can look forward to sharing her reward: truly, in her, God “hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.”

The Opening Acclamation

The Collect for Purity
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison

Gloria in excelsis S-280
The Collect of the Day
Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: Give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for St. Mary the Virgin
O God, you have taken to yourself the blessed Virgin Mary, mother of your incarnate Son: Grant that we, who have been redeemed by his blood, may share with her the glory of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Word of God
First Lesson
1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16, 16:1-2
David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the Lord to its place, which he had prepared for it. Then David gathered together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites. And the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the Lord. David also commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their kindred as the singers to play on musical instruments, on harps and lyres and cymbals, to raise loud sounds of joy. They brought in the ark of God, and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and they offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before God. When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

Psalm 34:1-9
Benedicam Dominum

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
   his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2 I will glory in the LORD; *
   let the humble hear and rejoice.
3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
   let us exalt his Name together.
4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
   and delivered me out of all my terror.
5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
   and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me *
   and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, *
   and he will deliver them.
8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
   happy are they who trust in him!
9 Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
   for those who fear him lack nothing.
Second Lesson
Revelation 11:19a, 12:1-6a, 10ab

Then God’s temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple. A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pangs, in the agony of giving birth. Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born. And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne; and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah.”

Sequence Hymn 621

The Holy Gospel
Luke 1: 39-56

¶The Gospeller introduces the Gospel and the people respond with “Glory to you, Lord Christ.”

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord.” And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name. His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy according to the promise he made to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.” And Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

¶The Gospeller concludes the Gospel and the people respond with “Praise to you, Lord Christ.”
The Nicene Creed

All: We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People: That we all may be one.
Leader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People: That your Name may be glorified by all people.
Leader: We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People: That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.
Leader: We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People: That there may be justice and peace on the earth.
Leader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People: That our works may find favor in your sight.
Leader: Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People: That they may be delivered from their distress.
Leader: Give to the departed eternal rest.
People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.
Leader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People: May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.
Leader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
[The People are invited to offer their own petitions]

¶The Celebrant will add a concluding Collect, and the congregation responds with “Amen.”

Confession of Sin

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
¶There is silence for a time, then:
People: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace
Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Hymn 278

Music during Communion

A Form for Spiritual Communion

Celebrant: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof.

But speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

Make an Act of Spiritual Communion to unite your intention with that of the whole Church:

Lord Jesus Christ,
saving Victim, Priest divine, in union with the faithful at every altar of your Church where your body and blood are offered to the Father,
I make an oblation of praise and thanksgiving.
I believe that you are truly present in the Eucharist.
To you I offer my soul, my body, and my life.
Come to my heart, embrace me with your love.
Conform my will to the pattern of your perfect obedience, so that loving all that you love, I may never be separated from you, but live to the glory of God. Amen.

Pray the Lord’s Prayer:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Meditate on the soul’s mystical union with Christ; 14th c. poem, ‘Anima Christi’ is a good place to start:

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
Within thy wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malicious enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me
and bid me come to thee,
That with thy saints I may praise thee
For ever and ever.

Offer a prayer of thanksgiving; this is one by St. Richard of Chichester:
Thanks be to thee, my Lord Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits thou hast won for me,
for all the pains and insults thou hast borne for me.
O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,
may I know thee more clearly, love thee more dearly,
and follow thee more nearly, day by day. Amen.

The Grace
+The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all, evermore. Amen.

Communion Hymn

Salve, Regina, mater misericordiae: Vita, dulcedo et spes nostra, salve. Ad te clamamus, exules filii Hevae.
Ad te suspiramus, gemeantes et flentes in hac luctuosa et triste et singularem et eam salutem quaerentes.
Eia ergo, advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos

Closing Hymn

Post-Communion Prayer

All: Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

¶The Celebrant will bless the people.

The Dismissal

Celebrant: Let us go forth in peace.
People: In the name of Christ. Amen.

InAsMuch Offering August: The Suitcase Clinic
First, we want to say thank you for those who helped our August InAsMuch! We raised $125 for the UC Berkeley Food Pantry. Thank you all for sending checks and donating online!
Staffed primarily by undergraduate students at UC Berkeley and community volunteers, the Suitcase Clinic in Berkeley provides healthcare and social services at four locations in Berkeley. Prior to COVID-19 as many as 40-60 clients received weekly services on Tuesday night at the General Clinic, at The First Presbyterian Church between Dana and Haste Streets. Notices are posted outside the General Clinic as services such as optometry, health van, laundry and ear acupuncture are subject to change. The Women's Clinic serves women and children, located at LIFE Adventist church at 2236 Parker Street Berkeley. The Youth/LGBTQ+ Clinic at St. Mark’s strives to provide appropriate and culturally accessible services to homeless and street-identified youth in their teens and twenties. Their goal is to increase opportunities for positive physical and social well-being. Massage, foot washes, dinner, needle exchange, and a warm welcome are provided. Congregation Beth El at 1301 Oxford Street provides a monthly dinner. Volunteers distribute health supplies and medical attention is provided by the UC San Francisco’s Joint Medical Program.
If you would like to learn more about the Suitcase Clinic or offer your services you can reach out to them at www.suitcaseclinic.org.
