

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, BERKELEY, CA

The Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Eucharist, Proper 19A

September 13, 2020; 10:00 a.m. via Livestream

Welcome to St. Mark's!

Even though the way we interact with church is very different now, the work of the church remains the same; the work of prayer remains the same; the work of worship remains the same. In brief, that work is offering our lives and our world to God, in the name of Christ who likewise offered himself. As we make our offering, no matter how halting, irregular, or unsure, we trust that God meets us; God takes what we carry and transfigures it according to that peace, that reconciliation between heaven and earth which Christ's offering has created. We're glad you're with us this morning. We hope some of that peace will be yours, as we join our hearts and voices in prayer.

Music in preparation for worship

O Mensch, beweine deine Sünde groß

J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

O man, bewail thy sins so great; O man, thy grievous sin bemoan.

Second Lesson

Romans 14:1-12

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand. Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 18:21-35

¶The Gospeller introduces the Gospel and the people respond with "Glory to you, Lord Christ."

Peter came and said to Jesus, "Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times. "For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.' Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

¶The Gospeller concludes the Gospel and the people respond with "Praise to you, Lord Christ."

The Sermon

Dr. Michael Jaycox

The Nicene Creed

All: We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Form for Spiritual Communion

In times like these where it is imprudent or impossible for all to receive Holy Communion, it is still possible to make an act of spiritual communion. The following devotion can be made at any time when you are prevented from being present at the Eucharist, but we encourage you to use it during these weeks of live-streamed services especially, at the time while communion is being administered and the ablutions performed. This form comes from a book of devotion, "The Habit of Holiness," by Martin Warner.

Make an Act of Spiritual Communion to unite your intention with that of the whole Church:

Lord Jesus Christ,
 saving Victim, Priest divine,
 in union with the faithful at every altar of your Church
 where your body and blood are offered to the Father,
 I make an oblation of praise and thanksgiving.
 I believe that you are truly present in the Eucharist.
 To you I offer my soul, my body, and my life.
 Come to my heart, embrace me with your love.
 Conform my will to the pattern of your perfect obedience,
 so that loving all that you love, I may never be separated from you, but live to the glory of God. Amen.

Pray the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Meditate on the soul's mystical union with Christ; 14th c. poem, 'Anima Christi' is a good place to start:

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
Within thy wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from thee.
From the malicious enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me
and bid me come to thee,
That with thy saints I may praise thee
For ever and ever.

Offer a prayer of thanksgiving; this is one by St. Richard of Chichester:

Thanks be to thee, my Lord Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits thou hast won for me,
for all the pains and insults thou hast borne for me.
O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,
may I know thee more clearly, love thee more dearly,
and follow thee more nearly, day by day. Amen.

The Grace

+The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all, evermore. Amen.

The recitalists who were scheduled to play in September and October have needed to cancel due to COVID. The rest of the organists scheduled to perform on the series have been able to recommit to playing on the series live via Facebook from St. Mark's, via livestream from another church/organ, or by sending a video recording that will be posted to our Facebook page.

Instead of a recital this Sunday, the 35th season of the Organ Recital Series will "kick off" with an interactive zoom conversation and "Organ Crawl" at the Flentrop with Fr. Blake and George. This time will provide opportunities to learn more about the instrument, the history of the organ, how it works, and plans for celebrating its 50th birthday in 2022!

Contributions are welcome to help support the series at one of the following levels of support: $1-74 Supporter / $75-124 Friend / $125-249 Sponsor / $250-499 Patron / $500 - $999 Sustainer / $1000+ Benefactor. Please make your check payable to St. Mark's Choir Association, 2300 Bancroft Way, Berkeley, CA 94704. Donations may also be received on-line at <https://stmarksberkeley.org/music/friends-of-music/>.

Contributions are tax-deductible. Thank you for your continued support.

Parish Conversations on Racial Justice

Our Sacred Ground program is underway! We are grateful to our many leaders, facilitators, and participants for helping us undertake the important work of listening, learning, and understanding our history of systemic racism -- even in the church. It's not too late to join, even now. Please just reach out to Toni or Fr. Blake if you'd like to sign up.

InAsMuch Offering for September: United Thank Offering

First, we want to say thank you for those who helped our August InAsMuch! We raised $425 for the Suitcase Clinic. Thank you all for sending checks and donating online!

An Episcopal Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic in Local Contexts. Through an annual United Thank Offering (UTO), the Episcopal Church has been awarding grants to innovative ministries throughout The Episcopal Church and Provinces of the Anglican Communion since 1883, with our diocese receiving the fourth largest number in the United States over the years. Last year's Ingathering of gifts totaled over $1,500,000, with grants going to Young Adult and Seminarian ministries and to twenty-seven parish, diocesan, and community organizations, including the Pine Ridge Common (Diocese of South Dakota), Community Mission Centers (Diocese of San Joaquin), Prison Choir (Diocese of Texas), Anglican Children's Ministry and Young Widows Program in Asaaba, Nigeria (Diocese of New York), Flylion Transition to Employment (Diocese of North Carolina), St. Paul's Sustainable Food Project (Diocese of Chicago) and MANNA Housing Recovery (Diocese of Maine). UTO has dedicated 100% of its 2020 Ingathering to Episcopal and Anglican ministries responding directly to the needs created by COVID-19 and the resulting economic downturn in the United States and in companion dioceses across the globe. Our contribution to the UTO for St. Mark's InAsMuch Appeal this month will be presented with many other offerings from churches and individuals in the Diocese of California at our Diocesan Convention this coming October. More information about the mission, history, and grant program of UTO can be found at www.unitedthankoffering.org. Please be as generous as you can to help alleviate the tremendous suffering caused by the losses of health, livelihood, and life inflicted by COVID-19. Thank You! --St. Mark's Social Justice Committee

On September 27, there will be another Diocesan-wide service at Grace Cathedral, again at 11am. The occasion is a special, virtual visit from Presiding Bishop Michael Curry to the Diocese of California. Mark your calendars now — that Sunday we will be joining the rest of the Diocese at the cathedral, just as we did this past spring for Pentecost.

The View from Luke is a Bible study series led by Fr. Michael Hiller that will begin on Monday evening on Zoom. The series will look at the entire Gospel of Luke, pericope by pericope, week by week. We will use many translations so as to see the full meaning of the texts as we discuss them. The series starts this Monday, 14 September 2020, at 7:00 p.m. The Zoom invitation is noted below. You can download the PowerPoint materials by accessing it from the Weekly Lion. Should you have any question about the series, or the materials, please contact Fr. Hiller at priestly@batnet.com.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE! Members of St. Mark's are invited to participate with our sister congregation, Temple Sinai in Oakland, in "tzedakah" during the upcoming Jewish High Holy days of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Tzedakah is a form of social justice by learning to give to others who are in need. Every year, Temple Sinai collects tons of food for the Alameda County Food Bank. This year, the gathering of food will be virtual by making on-line financial contributions. "Hinei mah tov uma na'im, shevet achim gam yachad." How good and pleasant it is for brothers and sisters to dwell together in unity. -Psalm 133.
