Welcome to St. Mark’s Church, and Easter greetings to all! There is a way in which Lent makes a kind of sense in our world that Eastertide may not: lament and penitence ring true for many, given the pains and injustices of this life. Meanwhile a season of unbridled joy can ring hollow, to the point of being flatly counterfactual. And yet as Christians we believe that the joy we celebrate on Easter Day, and which we continue in the weeks after, bears witness to a deeper truth: that love really is stronger than death, and that wherever we might find ourselves, Love has been there first and leads us on. May this time of Easter celebration bring us all a fresh glimpse of the One who calls us each by name, and fill our hearts with hope that his resurrection will also be our own.

Hymn 193

1 That Easter day with joy was bright, the 2 His risen flesh with radiance glowed; his 3 O Jesus, King of gentleness, do

5 All praise, O risen Lord, we give to

1 sun shone out with fairer light, when, to their long-ing
2 wounded hands and feet he showed; those scars their sol-emn
3 thou thy self our hearts possess that we may give thee
4 this our joyful Easter-tide; from every weapon
5 thee, who, dead, again dost live; to God the Fa-ther

1 eyes restored, the apostles saw their risen Lord.
2 witness gave that Christ was risen from the grave.
3 all our days the willing tribute of our praise.
4 death can wield thine own redeemed for ever shield.
5 equal praise, and God the Holy Ghost, we raise.

Opening Acclamation
Officiant: Alleluia! Christ is risen.
People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!
Officiant: O this day the Lord as acted; we will rejoice and be glad in it. – Psalm 118:24
Confession of Sin
Officiant: Let us humbly confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
¶Silence is kept for a time.
All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
Officiant: Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter
Officiant: Lord, open our lips.
People: And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.
All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. Alleluia.

Officiant: Alleluia. The Lord is risen indeed
People: Come let us adore him. Alleluia.
1 Alleluia, alleluia. *
   Alleluia, alleluia.

2 Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; *
   therefore let us keep the feast,

3 Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, *
   but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

4 Alleluia, alleluia. *
   Alleluia, alleluia.

5 Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; *
   death no longer has dominion over him.

6 The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; *
   but the life he lives, he lives to God.

7 So also consider yourselves dead to sin, *
   and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

8 Alleluia, alleluia. *
   Alleluia, alleluia.

9 Christ has been raised from the dead, *
   the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

10 For since by a man came death, *
    by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

11 For as in Adam all die, *
    so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

12 Alleluia, alleluia. *
   Alleluia, alleluia.

Psalm 133
Read in unison

1 Oh, how good and pleasant it is, *
   when brethren live together in unity!
2 It is like fine oil upon the head *
   that runs down upon the beard,
3 Upon the beard of Aaron, *
   and runs down upon the collar of his robe.
4 It is like the dew of Hermon *
   that falls upon the hills of Zion.
5 For there the Lord has ordained the blessing: *
   life for evermore.

First Lesson Acts 4:32-35
Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

(Gloria Patri may be added)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
   and to the Holy Spirit:
As it was in the beginning, is now, *
   and will be for ever. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia. *
   Alleluia, alleluia.
Te Deum

S. ELVEY

We praise thee O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
* All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.

2 To thee all Angels cry aloud;
   the Heavens and all the Powers therein;
   * To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,

3 Holy Holy Holy Lord God of Sabaoth;
   * Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.

4 The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee.
   * The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee.

5 The noble army of Martyrs praise thee.
   * The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee;

6 The Father of an infinite Majesty;
   Thine adorable true and only Son;
   * Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

R. FARRANT

Thou art the King of Glory O Christ.
   * Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

8 When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
   * thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.

9 When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
   * thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

10 Thou sittest at the right hand of God,
   * in the glory of the Father.

11 We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
   * We therefore pray thee help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

12 Make them to be numbered with thy Saints,
   * in glory everlasting.
Second Lesson

John 20:19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

(Gloria Patri may be omitted)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
As it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. A-men.
The Apostles’ Creed
All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
    who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascend into heaven,
and is seated on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer
Officiant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Officiant: Let us pray.
All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffrages
Officiant: Show us your mercy, O Lord;
People: And grant us your salvation.
Officiant: Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
People: Let your people sing with joy.
Officiant: Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
People: For only in you can we live in safety.
Officiant: Lord, keep this nation under your care;
People: And guide us in the way of justice and truth.
Officiant: Let your way be known upon earth;
People: Your saving health among all nations.
Officiant: Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
People: Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
Officiant: Create in us clean hearts, O God;
People: And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.

Collect of the Day
Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation:
Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ’s Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
Second Collect
O God, the author of peace and lover of concord, to know you is eternal life and to serve you is perfect freedom: Defend us, your humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in your defense, may not fear the power of any adversaries; through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Third Collect
Lord God, Almighty and everlasting Father, you have brought us in safety to this new day: Preserve us with your mighty power, that we may not fall into sin, nor be overcome by adversity; and in all we do, direct us to the fulfilling of your purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant offers the parish’s regular intentions, and bids the people offer their own.

Hymn 206

Antiphon (at the beginning)

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

1 O sons and daughters, let us sing!
2 That night the apostles met in fear;
3 When Thomas first the tidings heard,
4 “My pierced side, O Thomas, see;
5 No longer Thomas as then denied,
6 How blest are they who have not seen,

1 The King of heaven, the glorious King,
2 amidst them came their Lord most dear,
3 how they had seen the risen Lord,
4 my hands, my feet, I show to thee;
5 he saw the feet, the hands, the side;
6 and yet whose faith has constant been,

1 o’er death and hell rose triumphing. Al-le-lu-ia!
2 and said, “My peace be on all here,” Al-le-lu-ia!
3 he doubted the disciples’ word. Al-le-lu-ia!
4 not faithless, but believing be.” Al-le-lu-ia!
5 “Thou art my Lord and God,” he cried. Al-le-lu-ia!
6 for they eternal life shall win. Al-le-lu-ia! [Ant.]

Antiphon (at the end)

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia!

This hymn is for the Second Sunday of Easter and St. Thomas’ Day.

Meditation

The Rev’d Kenneth Schmidt

Concluding Prayers
Almighty and Everlasting God, from whom comes every good and perfect gift: Send down upon our bishops, and other clergy, and upon the congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of your grace; and, that they may truly please you, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honor of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

The Grace
Officiant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen. (2 Corinthians 13:14)
Hymn 209

1 We walk by faith, and not by sight; no
2 We may not touch his hands and side, nor 3 Help then, O Lord, our unbelief; and 4 that, when our life of faith is done, in gracious words we hear from him who spoke as follow where he trod; but in his promise may our faith abound, to call on you when realms of clearer light we may behold you none e'er spoke; but we believe him near.

we rejoice, and cry, “My Lord and God!”
you are near, and seek where you are found:
as you are, with full and endless sight.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS
New to St. Mark’s? Thank you for worshipping with us today. We would love to hear from you. If you have questions, you can contact us at connect@stmarksberkeley.org. If you would like to receive our weekly newsletter and updates, sign up online: St. Mark’s Newsletter Sign Up.

To add a name, change a listing, or share a date of importance on the parish prayer list, please email the Parish Administrator directly at office@stmarksberkeley.org. Be sure to specify which list best suits the need. Please be mindful that this list is meant specifically for parish prayers.

Public Office Hours - At the time we would normally be in the chapel for the weekday masses -- 12pm on Wednesdays and Fridays -- Fr. Hiller and Fr. Blake will host an hour’s worth of "public office hours" for conversation about prayer, faith, or anything else on your minds. Following our pattern, Fr. Hiller will take Friday and Fr. Blake will take Wednesday. Check the Lion for links. Fr. Hiller’s Office Hours are currently postponed until May. Please stay tuned for more information.

April InAsMuch Offering for Options Recovery Services
Coordinated by the Social Justice Committee, St Mark’s sponsors a monthly InAsMuch Offering named after Jesus’ challenge in the Gospel of Matthew to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, take care of the sick, and visit those in prison: “Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these . . . you have done it unto me.”

Last month St. Mark’s raised $240 for Alameda County Community Food Bank. For a full list of the scheduled ministries, please see the 2021 InAsMuch Calendar published in The Lion.

Options Recovery Services proudly celebrates over two decades of service to the community, helping to break the cycle of crime, broken families, and homelessness caused by addiction to alcohol and substances. They have a deeply rooted history in the Bay Area (offices in Berkeley, Oakland and San Leandro), with amazing donors, volunteers, and staff. What makes Options most successful is their clients and graduates who have reclaimed their lives from addiction. Every year, there are hundreds of graduates! We are proud of our continued partnership with Options. In the past, we’ve helped donate to their Christmas box program for their transitional housing clients, sponsored several graduations and continue to support monetarily through the InAsMuch offering. Help break the cycle by supporting this ever-growing organization. Last year alone, Options added a new transitional house to the other 9 houses, finished furnishing a specified perinatal transitional house, moved to a larger Oakland office and continued to support their clients during the pandemic. For more information, speak with Toni Murdock or visit Options website at optionsrecoveryservices.org.

To donate to the April Offering for the Options Recovery Services, send a check (made out to St. Mark’s Episcopal Church, with ORS on the memo line),to the Parish Office at 2300 Bancroft Way, Berkeley, CA 94704 or go online to https://stmarksberkeley.org/donate/.
THANK YOU for your generosity!

The View from Saint Luke - Join us as we follow the ministry and teaching of Jesus in the Gospel of Luke. We’re in the middle of the Sermon on the Plain. MUSIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

This morning, we thank Leela Velautham for offering the closing voluntary. Leela was born and brought up in the U.K. This is her seventh year in Berkeley, where she is working towards a PhD in Education in Math, Science and Technology. During her time in England, she was the organ scholar for her school and a member of the St. Gile’s Young Organist’s Conservatoire. She has been learning the organ with George for six years and particularly enjoys working on French repertoire.

You are cordially invited to attend the next concert in the Second Sunday Evensong/Organ Recital Series sponsored by St. Mark’s, Berkeley, TODAY. Evensong will be offered at 3:00 p.m. PST via Zoom. At 4:00 p.m. PST, organist David Lim, will offer a LIVESTREAM organ recital on the Flentrop Organ from St. Mark’s, Berkeley. Following the recital, there will be an opportunity to “meet and greet” David at approximately 5:00 p.m. PST.

David Lim is a second-year doctoral student at the University of Oklahoma, studying under Adam Pajan. He holds degrees from the University of Iowa (M.A., organ performance) and Gustavus Adolphus College (B.A. music and biology). Other teachers include Gregory Hand, Chad Winterfeldt, Chad Fothergill, and Jon Naatjes. He has played in masterclasses led by Wilma Jensen, Douglas Cleveland, Stephen Tharp, and Jeffery Brillhart. At Oklahoma, he holds a graduate assistantship in the music theory department, teaching first- and second-year theory courses. At Iowa, he served as a teaching assistant in the organ department, teaching organ and keyboard harmony and also worked as a musicology research assistant with film musicologist Nathan Platte on a critical edition of George Gershwin’s music for Damsel in Distress (1937). Lim was the winner of the 2014 Immanuel Lutheran Church Organ Scholar Award (Evanston, IL). In 2017, he was awarded an E. Power Biggs Fellowship from the Organ Historical Society and was inducted to the University of Iowa’s chapter of Pi Kappa Lambda, the national music honor society. He has held various roles in the American Guild of Organists with Sioux Trails and Twin Cities chapters and most recently served as the dean/chair for the North Central Region of the AGO Young Organists (AGOYO). He served on the 2017 regional convention committee and on the faculty for the regional Pipe Organ Encounter at Dordt College. Lim is Director of Music at St. Philip’s Episcopal Church in Ardmore, OK and has formerly served at Roman Catholic and Lutheran parishes.
